Macquarie is the university of pioneering minds. Globally recognised as one of Australia's leading research universities, Macquarie is a place where extraordinary new possibilities come to light. We've helped people to hear, introduced wireless internet technology to the world and broken through traditional boundaries by appointing Australia's first female vice-chancellor.

At Macquarie you'll join a vibrant community of diverse perspectives, all working towards a brighter future for our communities and our planet. Surrounded by beautiful parkland campus, our students and staff are free to explore and discover, supported by facilities including a high-tech library, private teaching hospital, gym and pools, childcare facilities, a campus train station and the newly expanded Macquarie Centre shopping complex next door.

The Deputy Vice-Chancellor – Academic (DVC – A) portfolio has a key role in overseeing the development of a balanced academic staff profile for the University as well as the capabilities of the academy. The portfolio also oversees the development and execution of Indigenous and widening participation strategies and plans as well as the operations of the University Art Gallery.

The Office of Indigenous Strategy, located within the DVC – A Office, is a culturally safe environment that leads the development and implementation of the University's Indigenous engagement and advancement strategies.

The Office is currently seeking an Indigenous Outreach Officer with experience working in a similar role, ideally within the community or education sector. Working with the Recruitment and Outreach Coordinator, the successful candidate will provide support to the University's Indigenous recruitment and outreach activities. This includes providing assistance with the development and delivery of outreach programs that promote the University's educational programs to prospective Indigenous students, their families and communities in NSW.

This position is identified as requiring applicants to be Indigenous Australians. Aboriginality/Torres Strait Islander is a genuine occupational qualification as authorised by section 14 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 (NSW).
