The Senior Legislative Adviser takes a key role in developing and delivering legislative and regulatory projects and initiatives for Local Government Victoria

We are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.

The Senior Legislative Adviser will take a lead role in providing instructions for legislation and regulations for the Local Government sector and providing legislative policy advice and support to the Minister for Local Government. The role also leads on sector development projects for local government, including developing guidance to strengthen council governance and to assist councils in complying with legislative and regulatory frameworks.

The successful candidate will have strong legal experience, preferably in the development of legislation and drafting of regulations. Admission or eligibility for admission to the legal profession in an Australian jurisdiction (that is, an Australian lawyer) is highly regarded for the role.

This is a fixed term position available until 1 January 2020.
