

Program Manager, Natural Environment

Location: Heidelberg

Salary: $96,924 to $117,293 + super.

Position No: 926760

- Lead the delivery of high-quality biodiversity and water services
- Be an active member of the Natural Environment Programs leadership team
- Location: Heidelberg

The Forest, Fire and Regions Group (FFR Group) provides high quality policy advice on forest, fire and emergency management; and delivers integrated, accessible and high-quality departmental programs and services in partnership with local communities.

We are building an inclusive workplace to help realise the potential of our employees, embrace our differences, and apply our diverse thinking to innovation and delivering services to Victorian communities. All jobs can be worked flexibly and we encourage job applications from Aboriginal people, people with disabilities, young people and people from culturally diverse backgrounds.

A unique opportunity exists within the Natural Environment Programs space for a Program Manager. This position will have the growth and development opportunities in leading a diverse team and experience a wide range of different projects and tasks. The purpose of this role is to lead the delivery of high quality, place-based projects, biodiversity programs, water projects, provide input into the development of policy and strategy, and support monitoring and review processes to support an agile, high performing culture.

Contributions you will make include aligning the team with the organisational values and goals through effective people management and modelling, actively promoting and driving change using broad influencing skills and assisting in the implementation of Protecting Victoria's Environment – Biodiversity 2037.

The successful applicant will have strong leadership skills, be able to manage and motivate a high performing team and be able to identify and manage a range of complex projects, often with competing needs. Highly desirable, they will also possess qualifications and expertise in natural resource management or a related environmental field.

This is a fixed term position available until 23 July 2019.

To be considered for this position, your application should include a supporting statement demonstrating that you meet the key selection criteria and any job requirements specified in the position description.
