

KOORI EMPLOYMENT PATHWAYS

Are you a team player who is enthusiastic and passionate about Aboriginal employment and career development?

An exciting opportunity has become available for an ongoing, full time Aboriginal Employment Advisor within the Department of Justice and Community Safety.

As a leader in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment and cultural inclusion, the department currently has over 180 Aboriginal staff working across the organisation.

This role is critical to the implementation of the department's Aboriginal recruitment and retention programs to build our Aboriginal workforce and help individuals reach their full potential.

The Aboriginal Employment Advisor works as part of the department's Aboriginal Employment Team and is responsible for the coordination of a range of Aboriginal programs under the department's extensive Aboriginal Employment and Career Strategy.

Projects coordinated by this role include, the Aboriginal Tertiary Scholarship Program, the Aboriginal Youth Employment Scheme (YES) Traineeship Program, the Aboriginal Career Development Program, and the Aboriginal Graduate Scheme.

This role will also be responsible for coordinating the department's Aboriginal staff networks, including the Aboriginal Youth Network, to further support the career development of our young Aboriginal employees.

Please note: this role involves regular travel within Victoria.

This is an Aboriginal Identified Position. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply. Applicants are welcome to utilise support from the Koori Employment Team throughout the recruitment process. Please visit justice.vic.gov.au/careers/koori+employment for further information.

For further information on this position and to submit your application, please visit careers.vic.gov.au

Applications close on Sunday, 17 February 2019.

