

Job Title: Senior Language Resource Officer

Agency: Department of Education and Training

Location: Darwin

Classification: Education and Training

Remuneration Range: $150,554 - $167,990

Work Type: Full time

Applications close: June 25, 2025

Senior Professional 1 - Remuneration Package Range $150,554 - $167,990

Secondary Years - Languages and Culturally Responsive Learning

Darwin or Nhulunbuy

One ongoing vacancy available

This vacancy may be available in either Darwin or Nhulunbuy subject to negotiation with the successful applicant.

Help strengthen Aboriginal languages in education across the Northern Territory!

- Lead systemic work to improve outcomes in Aboriginal language education, including bilingual programs.
- Collaborate with Aboriginal educators and schools to shape curriculum, resources and professional learning.
- Be part of a team delivering high-impact initiatives in culturally responsive education.

The Northern Territory Department of Education and Training is committed to delivering quality education for all learners from early years to adulthood. The agency promotes equity, cultural responsiveness and innovation through strategic initiatives that support students, schools and communities across urban, regional and remote contexts. Our vision is for every student to engage, grow and achieve, and we value collaboration, integrity, and respect in all that we do.

As the Senior Language Resource Officer, you will coordinate and implement policy, advice and resources that improve outcomes through the teaching and use of Aboriginal languages in schools. Based in the Teaching and Learning Services division, you will work closely with schools in East Arnhem and other regions, supporting professional learning, curriculum design, resource development and the use of Aboriginal languages across the region.

In your role, you will work with regional and school leadership to support educators in delivering quality Aboriginal language programs. You will provide strategic advice and support on bilingual education, curriculum design and professional learning. You will develop and strengthen collaborative partnerships with Aboriginal communities and schools. You will coordinate professional development and mentoring opportunities for both Aboriginal and non-indigenous staff and contribute to the development of high-quality resources that support Aboriginal languages in schools.

To be successful in this role, you will need:

- Demonstrated experience in Aboriginal language education, bilingual education or linguistics.
- A strong understanding of culturally responsive pedagogy and Aboriginal community engagement.
- Proven ability to lead initiatives or projects related to Aboriginal languages and education.
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills, with the ability to engage diverse stakeholders.
- Qualifications in education, linguistics.

Applications should consist of a one page summary sheet, resume / CV and copies of relevant qualifications.

For a copy of the Job Description or to apply online, visit

<https://jobs.nt.gov.au/Home/JobDetails?rtfld=322440>

Quote vacancy number: 19165

Closing date: 25/06/2025

For further information about this vacancy please contact:

Luke Carter on 08 8944 9323 or luke.carter@education.nt.gov.au

The Territory is a great place to live and work. This is a rare opportunity to experience all the Territory has to offer – deep connection to country, community, language and culture – and to make lasting impact in schools.

Information on the Northern Territory and its great lifestyle is available at Visit the Northern Territory, Australia