Caring for our city, creating a future for all

Our people are passionate about their communities and connected to their teams. They're motivated by our genuine commitment to diversity and inclusion, and our clear, compelling plan for our global city: Sustainable Sydney 2030-2050 Continuing the Vision.

Be part of a purpose-led organisation, with care at its core. You'll make a difference by acting in the best interests of our communities and city. Be better together with collaborative and inclusive partnerships. Embrace possibilities and be open to new ideas and creating bold solutions.

The City of Sydney is looking for up to 4 motivated events interns to join our Major Events and Festivals team and contribute to the success of Sydney New Year's Eve 2025.

Work with industry professionals to produce this iconic event, including media, marketing and communications, access and inclusion, volunteer programs, show planning and more.

You'll assist with event set-up, operation and pack-down and admin tasks like meeting minutes and project documentation. You'll support other programming and operations duties as required, with opportunities to work on event sites during Sydney New Year's Eve.

The internship is from Monday 15 September 2025 until Friday 9 January 2026, working up to Christmas and between 27 December and 1 January inclusive. You won't work Christmas or Boxing Day.

We're looking for interns who:

- have an interest in major events and festivals within a local government setting
- are able to meet deadlines and balance competing priorities
- are proactive, flexible and reliable
- have good written and oral communication skills and a proven ability to maintain confidentiality
- can work some evenings and weekends as required

Aboriginal Cultural Support Awareness Advisor

Wimmera South West Area

$124,888 - $136,747 per annum (plus superannuation)

Fixed Term until 30/01/ 2026, Full Time

The Aboriginal Cultural Awareness Advisor provides advice to and builds awareness of Child Protection practitioners working with Aboriginal children and engages with Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations and community services organisations to improve outcomes through progression of self-determination reforms for Aboriginal children, families, and communities. While the role does not develop cultural plans, it provides important cultural expertise and guidance which supports child protection practitioners with the cultural planning process, and cultural plan compliance.

This crucial role enables Aboriginal children to remain connected to community, build resilience and support them remaining with family. The role will also focus on area improvement and implementation processes, aligning outcomes to relevant divisional policies and processes.

Special Measures:

This is a Designated role - Only Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people are eligible to apply.

Senior Lawyer

(Southern Tasmania)

Hobart - Full Time

$131,480 - $150,058

The Tasmanian Aboriginal Legal Service (TALS) is looking for a Senior Lawyer to join its Hobart team in Southern Tasmania.

The focus of the role will be to lead the criminal law practice within the region, support the operation and management of the office and provide culturally appropriate legal advice and representation to clients in a broad range of matters.

What we are looking for

- A minimum of 5 years' experience in criminal practice and procedure, with substantial experience in appearance work in the Magistrates Court and experience in the Supreme Court is required.
- Demonstrated experience in mentoring and supervising staff, including junior lawyers.
- The ability to work collaboratively with others and foster a positive team environment.
- An understanding of the social issues faced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities in Tasmania, and a deep appreciation and respect of their cultural needs.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, with an ability to relate to a wide variety of people.
- Excellent stakeholder management and relationship building skills, demonstrating a history of maintaining positive and effective partnerships.

What we offer

This is a rewarding opportunity to join a forward thinking and inclusive organisation who is focused on making a difference, where it really matters.

A competitive salary range $131,480-$150,058* is available, plus access to salary packaging of up to $18,550 (increasing your take-home pay). Our team also enjoy flex time benefits, generous leave provisions and a 35hr working week.

The successful applicant will also be part of an out of hours telephone on-call roster, which attracts additional financial and other benefits.

Thinking about moving from interstate? Relocation assistance is available, please contact us to discuss.

New Enterprise Agreement rates are subject to approvals.*

Requirements

Eligibility to practise as a legal practitioner in Tasmania.

The successful candidate will need to be admitted as a Barrister or Practitioner of the Supreme Court of Tasmania, undergo a National Police Check and hold (or apply for) a current Working with Vulnerable Persons registration.

How to apply

If you would like further information about the role or to obtain a copy of the position description (which contains the selection criteria), please contact Hannah Phillips on 0407 041 663 or email tals@tals.net.au.

Please send a current resume and cover letter outlining your interest and addressing the selection criteria via SEEK by 5pm Wednesday 18th June 2025. Applications will be assessed as they are submitted. Apply Now!

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and their allies are strongly encouraged to apply for this role.
