Your role

This is a rewarding opportunity to create meaningful outcomes for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander clients with complex housing and support needs.

As an Aboriginal Senior Client service Officer, you will provide tailored advice and support across tenancy, housing and property management services. You'll work collaboratively with client's, internal staff and external providers to ensure culturally responsive and effective service delivery.

You will be part of a community focused team, working to support stronger, more inclusive housing outcomes and improved pathways for sustainable living.
