

Notice of an application for determination of native title in Victoria
Notification day: 22 April 2026

National Native Title Tribunal

This is an application by a native title claim group which is asking the Federal Court of Australia (Federal Court) to determine that the group holds native title in the area described below.

If you want to become a party to this application, you must file a Form 5 (Notice of Intention to become a Party) with the Federal Court, on or before 21 July 2026. Further information regarding how to file a Form 5 is available from www.fedcourt.gov.au. After 21 July 2026, you will need to seek leave from the Federal Court to become a party.

Under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth) there can be only one determination of native title for a particular area. If a person with native title rights and interests does not become a party to this application, there may be no other opportunity for the Federal Court, in making its determination, to take into account those native title rights and interests in relation to the area concerned.

For assistance and any further information about this application, including the description of the area, call Huia McGrath on 07 3052 4040 or visit www.nntt.gov.au.

Notice of an application for a revised determination of native title in South Australia
Notification day: 22 April 2026

National Native Title Tribunal

This is an application by Antakirinja Matu-Yankunytjatjara Aboriginal Corporation RNTBC, asking the Federal Court of Australia (Federal Court) to vary a determination of native title (Relevant Determination) in the area described below.

The applicant seeks orders under s 13(1)(b) of the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth), including that the Relevant Determination be varied to:

- delete paragraphs 10 and 11 relating to pastoral lease improvements
- include new schedules describing areas:
 - o where native title exists
 - o excluded from the determination because native title has been extinguished
 - o where, pursuant to a proposed ILUA, native title is surrendered
- other minor variations, such as to correct or update parcel descriptions.

The effect of the variation orders sought would be to; recognise native title over specified areas, identify areas that have been excluded by the Determination because of extinguishment, and list areas where native title is proposed to be surrendered.

If you want to become a party to this application, you must file a Form 5 (Notice of Intention to become a Party) with the Federal Court, on or before 21 July 2026. Further information regarding how to file a Form 5 is available from www.fedcourt.gov.au. After 21 July 2026, you will need to seek leave from the Federal Court to become a party.

For assistance and any further information about this application, including the description of the area, call Claire Smith on 07 3052 4040 or visit www.nntt.gov.au.

HERITAGE COUNCIL OF NSW Expressions of Interest

This is your opportunity to help shape heritage across NSW.

The Minister responsible for heritage is seeking to appoint three (3) members to the Heritage Council of NSW.

The Heritage Council is an independent statutory body that works to ensure the promotion, conservation and protection of heritage in NSW. The Heritage Council recommends items for listing on the State Heritage Register, supports conservation and adaptive use, and builds community understanding of heritage in NSW.

We are looking for individuals from a variety of professional backgrounds to contribute to the outcomes delivered by the Council.

Under the Heritage Act 1977, members of the Heritage Council are to be persons who, in the opinion of the Minister, possess qualifications, knowledge and skills relating to any of the following areas: Aboriginal heritage, archaeology; architecture; the building, development and property industries; conservation of environmental heritage; engineering; NSW or Australian history; local government; moveable heritage; natural heritage; planning; property, planning or environmental law; property economics; rural interests or cultural landscapes.

We are looking for people with broad knowledge and skills and with a passion for heritage. We would particularly welcome nominations from Aboriginal people, younger people and those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.

The Heritage Council meets eight times a year in Parramatta, with option for teleconferencing. Some out-of-session and/or off-site meetings may also be held. Members are remunerated in accordance with NSW Government guidelines.

Further information can be found in the Heritage Council information pack on the Heritage NSW website.

Applications

Submit your application, resume and a brief cover letter (maximum two pages) which details your qualifications, knowledge and skills relevant to the role, via: environment.nsw.gov.au/heritage-council-nsw-eoi

Consultation with native title groups on a proposed policy for NSW

The NSW Government is developing a new whole-of-government policy approach for responding to native title claims. We are seeking feedback from native title groups on the proposed new approach, which aims to settle claims and compensation in a fair, timely and cost-effective way to meet the aspirations of native title groups and obligations under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth).

We are holding face-to-face consultation sessions in February, March and April with Aboriginal people who assert native title rights and interests. Consultation sessions are being arranged jointly by the NSW Government and NTSCORP Limited.

Sessions will be independently facilitated by Uncle Jack Beetson.

Register

Visit nsw.gov.au/native-title-policy or scan the QR code to learn more and to register for a consultation session near you.

Consultation sessions are planned in:

- Mildura on 20 April
- Deniliquin on 22 April
- Wagga Wagga on 23 April
- Yass on 24 April

Community member: Wild horse community advisory panel

- Applications are invited to fill one membership vacancy
- Appointment till 30 June 2027

About the role

NSW National Parks and Wildlife Service (NPWS), part of the Department of Climate Change, Energy, the Environment and Water (DCCEEW), has a unique opportunity for one community member to join the wild horse community advisory panel.

The community advisory panel provides advice to the Minister for the Environment or NPWS on matters relating to the identification of the heritage value and the management of sustainable wild horse populations in Kosciuszko National Park. The panel also provides advice to the DCCEEW Secretary on the preparation and amendment of any draft wild horse heritage management plan.

The panel meets at least four times a year, usually in person. Panel members are eligible to receive sitting fees of $220 per full day ($110 per half day), in line with the Classification and Remuneration Framework for NSW Government Boards and Committees. Reasonable approved travel expenses are also reimbursed.

Additional meetings and site inspections to Kosciuszko National Park may occur and out of session reading time is required in preparation for meetings.

About you

To meet the membership requirements under Schedule 1 of the Kosciuszko Wild Horse Heritage Act 2018 (repealed), you must be either:

- an Aboriginal person, or
- a person who has expertise and experience in one or more of the following:
 - recreational planning and management (including horse riding)
 - horse or other animal welfare management
 - alpine tourism planning and management
 - community involvement in conservation.

Highly desirable

A community member or stakeholder from the locality around Kosciuszko National Park with expertise and experience in recreational planning and management (including horse riding).

For more information and to apply, visit

environment.nsw.gov.au/about-us/who-we-are/advisory-committees

Applications close Thursday 30 April 2026 at 11:55pm

Should you require further information about the role please contact the NPWS Wild horse team at npws.wildhorsepanel@environment.nsw.gov.au.

If Aboriginal applicants require further support with the application process, reach out to our Aboriginal Employee Experience Team on aex@dcceew.nsw.gov.au.

Notice of non-claimant applications for determination of native title in New South Wales

Notification day: 22 April 2026

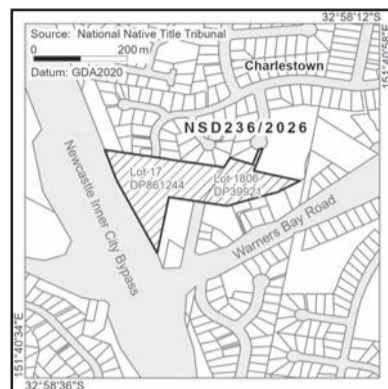

'Non-claimant' applications have been made to the Federal Court of Australia (Federal Court) seeking determinations that native title does not exist in the areas described below. The Applicants have non-native title interests in these areas, which are set out in their applications and summarised below.

Under the Native Title Act 1993 (Cth), there can be only one determination of native title for an area. Unless there are relevant native title claims, as defined in section 24FE, over the areas described below on or before 21 July 2026, the areas may be subject to protection under section 24FA and acts may be done which extinguish or otherwise affect native title.

A person who claims to hold native title rights and interests in any of these areas may wish to file a native title claimant application or become a party to the non-claimant application. These may be the only opportunities to have those rights and interests taken into account in the Federal Court's determination. Any other person may also wish to become a party.

If you want to become a party to any of these applications, you must file a Form 5 (Notice of Intention to become a Party) with the Federal Court, on or before 21 July 2026. Further information regarding how to file a Form 5 is available from www.fedcourt.gov.au. After 21 July 2026, you will need to seek leave from the Federal Court to become a party.
