

MORNINGTON
PENINSULA
Shire

First Nations Lead

About Us

The Shire is responsible for a broad range of infrastructure and community services that support the wellbeing and prosperity of our diverse community. With approximately 1,000 employees, it is a busy and vibrant workplace.

What's on Offer

- Security – Permanent full-time role, based in the Hastings office. Band 6 $97,322 per annum (excl. super).
- Work Life Balance – We offer a hybrid working model, flexible working arrangements and generous leave provisions.
- Culture – We recognise the importance of self-determination, hold deep respect for Traditional Owners and are committed to providing opportunities to strengthen First Peoples' connection to Country. We are committed to creating a culturally safe environment, where individuals feel safe, valued, and able to celebrate their culture.
- Leadership – Contribute to the strategic outcomes delivered by Mornington Peninsula Shire with an organisation who focuses on our people and the community.

About the Role

As the First Nations Lead, you will help bring the Council and community together to support reconciliation and self-determination on the Mornington Peninsula. You will do this by:

- Planning and leading the delivery of the Shire's Innovate Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP); and
- Supporting the representation of the Traditional Custodians and Indigenous community in Council planning, policy and service delivery.

About You

- Experience working with Indigenous communities to create and run programs that support wellbeing.
- Experience in community roles, handling complex and sensitive relationships.
- Skilled at managing projects and running community consultations.
- Proven ability to write for both professional and community audiences.
- Current Victorian Driver Licence and Working with Children Check.

How to Apply

This is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Identified Position, classified under 'special measures' of section 12 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010. Only Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are eligible to apply.

Do you want to represent the Western Australian disability community?

The Minister for Disability Services is seeking expressions of interest from people with lived experience of disability, carers, and advocates to join the Disability Services Commission Board (the Board).

The Board was established under the Disability Services Act 1993 as the governing body of the Disability Services Commission (the Commission). The Board's role includes:

- Performing all the Commission's functions under the Act and any other written law.
- Monitoring the high-level governance and strategic direction of all disability services provided by the Commission through the Department of Communities for Western Australians who are either living with, or whose lives are affected by, disability.
- Ensuring that the Commission's activities align with:
  - o the principles of the Act, and
  - o the needs, rights, and lived experience of people with disability, their families, carers, and advocates.
- Overseeing implementation of the 'A Western Australia for Everyone: State Disability Strategy 2020-2030'.

The Western Australian Government recognises the importance of Board membership reflecting the diversity of the disability community. The Minister encourages applications from people with disability, people with diverse cultural and social backgrounds, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and people living in regional and remote parts of Western Australia.

If you need support with your application, such as information in an alternative format, or further information about the Board and its work, please contact Hannah Penney, Project Manager at the Department of Communities via phone on 0478 999 982 or via email to boards\_committees@communities.wa.gov.au.

The Application Form and Position Description are available from the Disability Services Commission Board at <https://www.wa.gov.au/organisation/department-of-communities/disability-services-commission-board>

Applications close at 4.00 pm on Tuesday 19 May 2026.

Late applications will not be accepted.
