

Senior Policy and Projects Officer, Youth Justice

- Temporary, Full Time up to 30 June 2027 (Short-term Remand Program Coordinator Location: Wagga Wagga)
- Ongoing Full time - (Senior Policy and Projects Officer, Location: Parramatta)
- Clerk Grade 9/10 Salary ($129,464 - $142,665 pa), plus employer's contribution to superannuation and annual leave loading

This is a targeted recruitment.

While all applicants are welcome, preference will be given to candidates who meet the established standards of the role and are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait islander descent. This is because the Department acknowledges this lived experience contributes a perspective valuable to our work with this community.

Your role

Develop, manage, and implement innovative policies and programs within the Division to support and improve service delivery for young people in contact with the criminal justice system. Provide specialist policy advice and high-level analysis on issues and strategies.

Senior Policy and Projects Officer (Short-term Remand Program Coordinator)

Youth Justice NSW is seeking to appoint a temporary full-time Short-term Remand Program Coordinator (Senior Policy and Project Officer) within the Whole of Government Initiatives Team.

As the Short-term Remand Program Coordinator, you will be required to work from Wagga Wagga Police station twice a week.

The Short-term Remand Program design is led by the NSW Police Force and Children's Court of NSW, facilitated by Youth Justice NSW, and designed collaboratively with local communities, the NSW Government and non-government organisations.

Senior Policy and Projects Officer

Youth Justice NSW is seeking to appoint an ongoing full-time Senior Policy and Project Officer within the Whole of Government Initiatives Team.
