

Aboriginal Facilitator

- Leading natural resource management agency
- Be part of a team passionate about supporting community
- Great lifestyle location
- Flexible work practices

The North Central Catchment Management Authority protects and enhances the integrity of our catchments, by working in partnership with communities to deliver enduring natural resource management outcomes. We are currently seeking an enthusiastic and motivated person to join our Engagement team.

This is an exciting opportunity to build positive relationships with Aboriginal communities of the North Central region of Victoria through collaborative projects and strategic partnerships. Located at our Huntly office, the Aboriginal Facilitator will play a lead role in internal compliance with Aboriginal legislative matters, in developing cultural awareness, and in supporting activities within our Reconciliation Action Plan. The successful applicant will demonstrate a knowledge and experience of Aboriginal culture and society with an understanding of the key Traditional Owner concerns in the region, particularly in relation to Caring for Country.

This position is offered on a fixed term basis for a period of 20-months part time, 3-4 days per week. For further information contact the North Central CMA on 03 5448 7124.

For a copy of the Job Description or to submit an application visit the Jobs and Tenders section of our website at www.nccma.vic.gov.au/jobs-tenders or contact HRManager@nccma.vic.gov.au Applications will be accepted until 4:00pm Monday 31st May and should include a covering letter, a current resume, and statement addressing the key selection criteria outlined in the position description.

We embrace diversity and inclusion, so apply if you are:

- A person with disability
- Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander
- Culturally and linguistically diverse
- LGBTIQ+

While this is not an identified position, applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged for this role.
