About us

GP Synergy is a leading provider of general practice training funded by the Australian Government to deliver vocational training to doctors seeking to specialise as general practitioners across NSW and ACT.

We are committed to building a skilled general practice workforce by delivering a high-quality education and training program that is responsive to regional population health needs.

Our organisation is underpinned by our values - respect, excellence and initiative.

The role

GP Synergy is seeking a committed Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Educator who is suitably experienced and who shares our values, to join our cultural education team in our Ballina office.

Reporting to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Education Unit Manager, the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Educator will provide region wide support for the training of GP registrars in Aboriginal health by implementing key priority areas defined in the GP Synergy Aboriginal Health Strategic Plan and will plan, develop and implement strategies that support GP Registrar training in Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Services (ACCHSs) in NSW and ACT.

The position will consult, liaise and negotiate with key stakeholders of GP Synergy and in the ACCHS sector including CEOs and or staff (clinical and management). In addition, the Cultural Educator will represent the interests of GP Synergy and advocate in forums and committees at state and national levels. This may include representing GP Synergy on committees related to GP training and recruitment and consult with agencies associated with the provision of these services (and related services) in NSW and ACT.
