The Department of Communities and Justice acknowledges lived experience and how it contributes to the valuable work we do with the community.

We strongly encourage and support applications from people who are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent. While all applicants are welcome, once we have determined through merit-based assessment which candidates meet the pre-established standards of the role, preference will be given to candidates who meet the established standards of the role and are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent.

Your role

Gosford Youth Justice Community Office is looking for a Caseworker to provide front line services to young people at their Community Office.

This involves providing a range of quality externally and internally sourced services to detainees, youth justice conferencing clients, victims of crime and court mandated young people and their families. The role is part of a multi-disciplined team that aims to reduce re-offending of young people, enhance their functioning and support reintegration into their families and the community.

Closing Date: Sunday 13 October 2024 at 11:59pm AEST
