The Department of Communities and Justice acknowledges lived experience and how it contributes to the valuable work we do with the community.

We strongly encourage and support applications from people who are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait islander descent. While all applicants are welcome, once we have determined through merit-based assessment which candidates meet the pre-established standards of the role, preference will be given to candidates who meet the established standards of the role and are of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait islander descent.

Your role

Youth Justice is looking for innovative and dynamic Psychologists to service their Custodial Centre based in Grafton.

- Operate as a member of a multi-disciplinary team, delivering psychological assessment, intervention, and therapeutic services.
 - Provide a consultancy service to staff regarding the psychological needs of Youth Justice clients within custodial and community locations, as well as advice to statutory authorities such as the Parole Board.
