

Senior Communication Officer - Identified

Department of Resources

Location: Brisbane City

Remuneration: $110,216 - $117,693 p.a.

REF: QLD/529278/23

A unique opportunity to design and deliver communication strategies that support genuine partnerships with First Nations People.

Special Conditions

This is an identified position for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander candidates, under section 25 of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991 (QLD).

We are seeking an experienced Senior Communication Officer to design and deliver communication and engagement strategies that support genuine partnerships with First Nations People, recognising their significant contributions to Queensland.

You will build relationships across the department, to help ensure Indigenous perspectives, values and aspirations are considered and embedded throughout our communication programs. This plays a vital role in building relationships with Traditional Owners and Custodians, and our ongoing commitment to the Path to Treaty and a reframed relationship with First Nations Queenslanders.

Working within a centralised, high performing communication team, no two days are the same. To succeed in the role, and contribute to a positive team culture, you will be customer focussed and results driven with excellent written and verbal communication skills.
