

Cultural Healing Practitioner

This is an Identified Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander only position,

Full-time role. Ability to travel within Vic required.

The Cultural Healing Practitioner position is situated within the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Service Development Team.

This role has been developed in recognition of the overrepresentation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children in out of home care.

The Cultural Healing Specialist aims to assist children and young people to recover from harmful impacts of complex trauma (current, transgenerational, and intergenerational), child sexual abuse and/or family violence, and assist families, communities of care and communities of practice to support children and young people in the healing process through culturally sound healing, professional practice, and therapeutic outcomes.

For more information, please contact: Esmai Manahan, National Leader Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Service Development at Esmai.manahan@mackillop.org.au or on 03 8687 7496.

How to Apply: To view the position description and to apply please mackillop.org.au/careers/positions-available.