Solicitor/Clinical Supervisor

Western Sydney University is a modern, forward-thinking, research-led university, located at the heart of Australia's fastest-growing and economically significant region, Western Sydney. Boasting 11 campuses – many in Western Sydney CBD locations – and more than 200,000 alumni, 49,500 students and 3,500 staff, the University has 14 Schools with an array of well-designed programs and degrees carefully structured to meet the demands of future industry.

The University is ranked in the top two per cent of universities worldwide, and as a research leader, over 85 per cent of the University's assessed research is rated at 'World Standard' or above.

The School of Law is committed to excellence and innovation in teaching, research and community engagement. It has a research focus on Human Rights and Social Justice issues.

The School offers Bachelor of Laws (LLB) and combined LLB degrees, as well as providing law teaching for business degrees at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. LLB programs are taught at the Parramatta and Campbelltown Campuses, whilst Law teaching in business degrees is taught across the University. There are approximately 1,600 students in the Law School.

The Western Sydney University Justice Clinic (WSUJC) demonstrates the School of Law's commitment to providing experiential learning opportunities for its students and a commitment to social justice. Law students who undertake Clinical Legal Placement Units work alongside practicing solicitors doing advice, casework, law reform and policy work and community legal education. The WSUJC currently offers a Clinical Legal Placement for penultimate or final year law students. From 2022, the WSUJC will offer three separate undergraduate Clinical Placements: WSUJC Clinical Legal Placement; First Nation Peoples' Access to Justice Clinic; and a Street Law Clinic. The WSUJC also provides a free legal referral service (the Student Legal Service) to current Western Sydney University students funded through Student Services Amenities Fees.

An opportunity exists for a Solicitor/Clinical Supervisor to join the team.

In this position you are required to work four days a week in the First Nation Peoples' Access to Justice Clinic in the WSUJC and/or offsite with WSUJC partners on advice, casework, law reform and community legal education in areas of law focussing on First Nation Peoples' Access to Justice. You will also assist the Principal Solicitor/Clinical Supervisor (WSUJC) and the Director of Clinical Education with casework, law reform and policy work and community legal education as required.

You will work with WSU School of Law students in a best practice clinical legal education model in a therapeutic jurisprudence practice framework. You will work under the supervision of the Director of Clinical Education and the Principal Solicitor/Clinical Supervisor (WSUJC) and alongside the Solicitor/Clinical Supervisor (Street Law Clinic).

For more information, please refer to the Position Description.

This is a part-time (0.8 FTE), fixed-term position until 31 December 2023 based at the Parramatta City Campus however travel to other campuses may be required from time to time.

Remuneration Package: HEW Level 8 $96,703 to $107,351 pro rata rates (comprising Salary $81,715 to $90,713 pro rata rates plus 17% Superannuation and Leave Loading).

Position Enquiries: Please contact Dr Jennifer Whelan via email: j.whelan@westernsydney.edu.au

Applications Close: 8:30pm, Sunday 24th October 2021.

To be eligible for this position you must provide evidence of your full-time Working Rights in Australia at time of application.

- establishment of core organisational values in conjunction with the Board of Directors and ensuring these values are reflected in all aspects of the company and communicated to all stakeholders;
- creating, implementing and maintaining high quality and service performance standards and developing systems to build key relationships and improve operational efficiency;
- overseeing all functions within the organisation and providing direction and guidance to the organisation as a whole; and
- ensuring and contributing to the operational and strategic decision-making process and providing authoritative advice to the Special Administrators/Board of Directors in relation to operational matters and company performance.

About you

You will be in an executive level role with extensive experience in management at a senior leadership level, preferably with an Aboriginal community-controlled organisation. You will need demonstrated knowledge and understanding of health issues impacting upon the health status of Aboriginal communities as well as:

- Post Graduate Tertiary qualification in Business, Commerce, Management, Finance, Health or similar discipline
- Demonstrated knowledge of strategic planning and achievement of strategic objectives
- Demonstrated experience in ensuring an effective management system, policy and procedure framework and financial system for an organisation
- Demonstrated ability to lead and develop a team at a senior level
- High level of computer literacy; sound working knowledge of Microsoft Office software
- Current valid Driver's license, minimum of Class "c" or equivalent

Appointment to this position will be subject to a National Criminal History Record Check clearance. Two reference checks will be required including one recent supervisor.

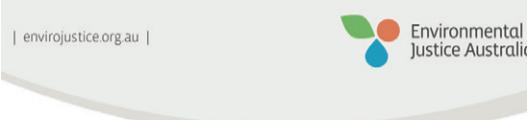

We offer an excellent range of benefits including:

- $200,000-$210,000 salary range plus super
- Company vehicle with private use
- Non-profit status with salary sacrifice available to reduce tax and increase your take home pay
- An opportunity to shape the organisation and really make a difference to the communities we serve

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

WBACC invites applications from suitably qualified and experienced candidates for the newly created position of General Manager Community Services.

We are looking for an energetic, dedicated and committed leader who seeks work in a dynamic and challenging environment.

An attractive salary package will be negotiated with the successful applicant, in line with skills and experience and the provisions of the Australian Government Industry Award 2016.

This is an identified position – Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are strongly encouraged to apply.

You will:

Have demonstrated understanding of issues affecting Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people and proven ability to communicate sensitively and effectively with Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people. Previous experience working in an Aboriginal community controlled organisation will be highly regarded.

- Be able to develop community service programs in partnership with community members and service providers
- Be a highly skilled senior leader who can effectively manage the delivery of community services in an Indigenous environment
- Be a highly skilled communicator who can effectively lead a multidisciplinary team
- Have experience in the management of community programs such as Housing, Daycare, Community Grants, and Emergency Management, ideally gained in an Indigenous community setting
- Be experienced in managing budgets and risk
- Drive strategic and operational planning to deliver organisational goals and promote continuous improvement practices
- Contribute effectively as a member of the leadership team.

The preferred applicant will be required to undergo referee checks, a Criminal History Check, Bankruptcy Search and obtain a 'Working with Vulnerable People' clearance.

To request a Position Description and Essential Criteria, please contact Noleen Jessup on 0408 381 191 or via email at noleen@jessuphr.com.au.

To apply, please email your application letter, addressing all essential criteria, and resume to noleen@jessuphr.com.au no later than COB Friday 5 November 2021.
