

POSITION VACANT

Rumbalara Aboriginal Cooperative – Health & Wellbeing now have the following vacancy

Registered Nurse - Fulltime ongoing

About the Role

As a registered nurse you will provide primary care nursing support, patient interventions and treatment within the Clinic and from time to time in patient's homes or elsewhere as required. Registered nurse must work within scope of practice and be responsible for providing patient-centred, culturally appropriate and individual holistic care to patients. The registered nurse will work closely with the doctors and other team members to provide efficient, effective professional nursing services.

About You

- Current registration as Registered Nurse with AHPRA.
- A desire and ability to work collaboratively within a multidisciplinary team to bring about positive change in health outcomes
- A clear respect for Aboriginal culture, ability to listen and learn and willingness to participate in cultural safety training
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills and ability to relate to and work effectively with people of diverse backgrounds and life experiences.
- Commitment to ensuring client and organisational confidentiality, specific to work role.
- An Understanding of issues affecting Aboriginal health, Community experiences of health, principles of primary health care and relevant state/national legislation governing health practices in Victoria
- Demonstrated initiative and ability to work autonomously, within the scope of practice and the work requirement of the role while demonstrating a commitment to continuous quality improvement.
- Willingness to accept other responsibilities, as reasonably requested by the Health Centre Practice Manager or Executive Manager of health and wellbeing, that are in accordance with skills, scope of practice and qualifications.

What do you need to apply?

- Experience in working in an Aboriginal organisation and/ or knowledge and understanding of Aboriginal culture and history
- Evidence of your Covid-19 Vaccination Status
- Current Working with Children's Check
- National Police Check
- Driver's License
- APHRA registration

Benefits

- Above award salary will be negotiated (Depending on qualifications and/or experience)
- 10.5% Super with choice of fund
- Salary Packaging of $15,900 available for Part or Full Time Employees
- Access to free and confidential Employee Assistance Program
- Professional development opportunities
- Potential for relocation allowance
- Christmas bonus days and NAIDOC day

For further information or to apply, please email: cherryn.briggs@raclimited.com.au or visit rumbalara.org.au/careers/

Your application must include: Your current resume, and a cover letter outlining the key selection criteria

Applications Close: Monday 13th February, 2023

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander community are strongly encouraged to apply.

Rumbalara Aboriginal Co-operative is an Equal Opportunity Employer who provides an inclusive work environment and embraces the diverse talent of its people.