This is an Aboriginal Identified role where Aboriginal identity, cultural knowledge or connections are a genuine aspect of the role. Positions are specifically noted under the provisions of the NSW Anti-discrimination Act (1977).

About the role

You will also contribute to ensuring Environment and Heritage Group (EHG) obligations and aims are met through the enhancement and preservation of the natural and cultural heritage values of parks. Perform works programs and conducts inspections of potential safety hazards to ensure that the public has access to appropriately maintained and safe recreational facilities. Undertakes pest, weed and fire management activities, including those in remote areas. Operates and maintains plant and equipment. Responds to visitor enquiries and may assist with compliance activities.

The North Coast Branch manages 225 protected areas covering diverse coastal and hinterland environments. We protect threatened species and significant sites of Aboriginal and historic heritage. Many parks, including the Aboriginal-owned Gaagal Wanggaan (South Beach) National Park, are jointly managed with Aboriginal communities. Cape Byron State Conservation Area and Arakwal National Park are internationally recognised for excellence in protected area management.

Our spectacular parks, beaches and campgrounds host 7 million visits each year. Our current focus areas include upgrading visitor infrastructure in our key precincts and delivering conservation outcomes for one of the most biodiverse areas in NSW.

About you

Your passion for your community and environment, coupled with a strong attention to detail will be key to your success in this role. You'll be a strong decision-maker with the ability to think on your feet, enjoy working in dynamic and at times, autonomous work sites. Your fitness and enthusiasm will enable you to thrive and succeed in this diverse, fast-paced role.

Please note: This is a physically demanding role, requiring physical activity, lifting, carrying, pushing and pulling loads, bending, climbing, and driving a variety of vehicles. Field Officer applicants must meet the requirements of a firefighting medical which is inclusive of a clearance to undertake frontline firefighting roles. The applicant must pass the task-based fitness assessment to a moderate level within the probationary period (up to 12 months) and annually thereafter.
