Where you'll be working

Full-time, part-time, and casual positions available!

Sutherland, St George and Prince of Wales Hospitals Occupational Therapy and Physiotherapy teams are seeking team members that are motivated to provide best possible compassionate care to our community. As an allied health assistant, working with an Occupational Therapist, or a Physiotherapist, you will provide support to deliver health care to people in hospital. Your day includes working with clients on their therapy program, setting up equipment, and communicating with many people at the hospital.

This is a targeted Aboriginal position in accordance with the GSE Act Rule 26, Employment of Eligible Persons. Aboriginal people are encouraged to apply, and preference will be given to applicants of Aboriginal descent who meet the selection criteria, to improve access to employment and career opportunity. Aboriginal applicants must demonstrate Aboriginality in addition to addressing the selection criteria.

In the event there are no suitable Aboriginal applicants then applicants from non-Aboriginal applicants will be considered.

An eligibility list for Allied Health Assistants for Occupational Therapy and, or Physiotherapy will be created from this process. Applicants selected for the eligibility list may be offered permanent, temporary, or casual roles that become available, at St George Hospital, Sutherland Hospital and Prince of Wales Hospital.

What you'll be doing

The vision for South Eastern Sydney Local Health District (SESLHD) is 'exceptional care, healthier lives'. SESLHD is committed to enabling our community to be healthy and well, and to providing the best possible compassionate care when people need it.

As an Allied Health Assistant, you will provide support to the therapy team in the delivery of health care services to patients under the direct, indirect, or remote supervision of a Therapist and consistent with South Eastern Sydney Local Health District (SESLHD) policies, procedures and standards.
