NRAR enforces the NSW water laws and offers guidance and education to help water users comply. We strive to be an efficient and effective regulator that celebrates and reflects the diversity of the community we serve. Working with NRAR provides a chance to make sure water is used lawfully so that all communities and the environment get a fair share.

The Manager Engagement is responsible for designing and delivering NRAR's stakeholder engagement programs and leading NRARs engagement with industry, community and intergovernmental agencies to advance NRARs strategic compliance objectives and regulatory efficiency and effectiveness.

About You

The Manager Engagement's key focus is to build the reputation of the NRAR by fostering close working relationships with key stakeholders including Water NSW, other NSW regulatory agencies, local government and the Commonwealth to ensure a consistent approach to natural resource management legislation administration, communication and education.

You will lead the design and delivery of engagement programs with a strong emphasis on using indirect means to improve voluntary compliance with regulatory obligations, reducing the risks of unlawful activity.

You will also lead the development and contribute to, communities of practice to share insight and knowledge of regulatory best practice within the Departmental cluster, across NSW regulators and Murray Darling Basin jurisdictions.

Develop, implement and evaluate strategic, tactical and operational stakeholder engagement plans, programs, projects and initiatives aligned with NRARs strategic plan and regulatory priorities.
