

VICTORIA POLICE

VICTORIA POLICE JOB OPPORTUNITIES

First Nations Peoples have been calling for a truth-telling process for generations. In response, the Victorian Government established the Yoorrook Justice Commission on 12 May 2021. The Commission is the first formal truth-telling process into injustices experienced by First Peoples in Victoria.

Victoria Police acknowledges the important work that needs to be done and has established the Yoorrook Justice Commission Response Taskforce. Our team are seeking new team members to assist with a diverse range of work to support the Yoorrook Justice Commission.

There are currently two Designated Positions available within the Yoorrook Justice Commission Response Taskforce:

- VPS2 Legal Support Officer #20042716
- VPS4 Policy and Projects Officer #20042710

These positions are in accordance with Section 12 of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010, only Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are eligible to apply.

Victoria Police is happy to consider part-time or other flexible work arrangements, including remote working. These roles are a unique opportunity to work in new and innovative ways and contribute to the ground-breaking work of Truth, Treaty, Self-Determination and Cultural Rights.

Join an amazing and supportive team campaigning for truth and acknowledgement of the past and present and change for a better future.
