Working at the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With more than 4,000 employees from diverse backgrounds across more than 50 locations around Australia and overseas, we are proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality content that informs, educates and entertains Australian communities.

The ABC's a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Lead, Indigenous Employment and Diversity.

About the Role

- In this unique role you will be identifying and developing original story ideas that resonate with local & national audiences. You'll have the opportunity to work with exceptionally experienced Executive and Series Producers of Landline and Gardening Australia, as well as other content in the Regional & Local division. The role involves:
- Developing new content ideas & opportunities for programs to achieve strong reach and audience engagement
- Producing accurate and engaging briefing documents for producers on Landline, Gardening Australia & other departmental productions as required
- Fact-checking including script reading & watching episodes ready for delivery.

About You

You will have experience in the creation & identification of content & research relevant to gardening & horticulture. Your skills will include:

- Sophisticated editorial skills and exercise sound judgment when sourcing & analysing information.
- Well-developed research & writing skills with an ability to produce high quality briefings
- Excellent communication skills with meticulous attention to detail
