Our Aboriginal Housing Office (AHO) team is currently seeking to appoint a Project Manager, Sector Investment to lead the management, design and implementation of building programs and projects which improve AHO organisational capacity, financial viability and scale. In this role, you will prepare project-related documents, collaborate with stakeholders and manage relationships, as well as utilise project management methodologies to deliver quality outcomes.

About You

You will have demonstrated experience in the development and implementation of community-based programs and projects, along with competency in the consultation, engagement and working successfully with Aboriginal communities and organisations. You will have strong communication skills and the ability to build effective relationships and work collaboratively with others within the AHO division and across DPIE. You will also be creative, dedicated and demonstrate strong initiative to enable the creation of new programs under broad guidance.

This is an excellent opportunity for an experienced project manager to lead a team to co-design and develop programs to improve AHO service delivery. We also offer career development and advancement opportunities.

Essential Requirements

- Demonstrated understanding of Aboriginal cultural beliefs and attitudes and of the socio-economic position of Aboriginal people within Australian society, and of their impacts in relation to housing. A thorough understanding of the Aboriginal political and historical impacts upon policy developments in NSW and nationally in relation to Aboriginal land rights, and Aboriginal land use.
- Tertiary qualifications in a related discipline and/or equivalent knowledge, skills and experience with demonstrated commitment to ongoing professional development.
- Appointments are subject to reference checks. Some roles may also require the following checks/clearances:
 - o National Criminal History Record Check in accordance with the Disability Inclusion Act 2014.
