EDUCATION DELIVERY MANAGER

- Manage education delivery and governance functions, and promote excellence in education delivery
- Provide high-quality academic administration advice and support on student related matters
- Lead and develop a large team of education administration staff with a positive professional work culture

The ANU Medical School educates and develops medical graduates who practise medicine with compassion, conscience and professional excellence. The School partners with healthcare organisations to deliver clinical teaching and training and is committed to extending the boundaries of medical knowledge and improving the health system through research, and to providing students with a research led educational experience. This role manages the education delivery and governance functions within the School, working in close collaboration with a broader education team to provide high-quality education delivery advice and support. The successful candidate will have university education experience with strong leadership and manager skills.
