About ABC Regional & Local

The ABC's Regional & Local team is all about Australian communities and their conversations. Our teams create unique and distinctive content that connect communities and shape lives in metropolitan, regional and remote Australia. From our eight capital city radio stations, our forty four regional bureaux, through to screen, live events and sport, Regional & Local is about real people, real places and real life.

About You

If you know and love the the community in the Topical North this role is for you. You will be working as part of the highly successful ABC Regional and Local team in a collaborative way under the direction of the Chief of Staff. You will have a strong local knowledge, community connections and contacts. You'll be expected to work independently and at times, as part of our dynamic team of content makers and reporters.

Does this describe you?

- A highly motivated content maker.
- You love radio.
- You can work independently and or within a team.
- You have strong editorial skills.
- You're savvy with social media and online content and know how to engage a diverse demographic of listeners.
- You're passionate about local current affairs, social issues, technology and culture.
- You're agile, and have a good knowledge and understanding of the concerns and interests in Tropical North Queensland, as well as national and international issues.
- You have a track record of presenting and producing high quality contemporary radio.

About the Role

Have you got what it takes to present a dynamic flow radio program for the ABC?

We're looking for an accomplished presenter/producer for Saturday Breakfast for ABC Tropical North. You'll help ease the local audience into their weekend, with a mix of music, weather, sport, events and any relevant breaking news.

As Saturday Breakfast presenter you will:

- Present Saturday Breakfast from our Mackay studio.
- Create content across a number of platforms and programs from radio production to digital media for local, state and national audiences.
- Identify and deliver local regional stories to both the Tropical North and the national audience.
- Work across radio, online and social media.
- Develop contacts and break stories.
- Work to other programs as required.
- Produce the local breakfast program and Emergency Broadcasting.
