About the Role

Could you be the next presenter of the Victorian Country Hour? The ABC Country Hour has notched up 75 years as Australia's longest running radio show and is looking for a new presenter/ reporter in Victoria to take the program forward in 2021. Based in one of the ABC's regional bureaux, or in Melbourne, you will be committed to bringing the latest agricultural news and issues to radio, online, social media and TV audiences.

And you're not tied to a desk behind a microphone either. You could hit the road on any given day to broadcast from a paddock or the main street of a country town. You will bring our rural stories to television screens and you could help attract new audiences to ABC Rural online.

Jobs like this don't come up very often because it's one of the best gigs at the ABC. Don't hesitate, as this is a rare opportunity to join the ABC as presenter on one of the country's most respected rural radio programs.
