About the Role

ABC investigations is seeking a Researcher for a 12 month contract to manage research and information resourcing needs for News.

You will contribute to the setting of programs and story agendas as well as the sound and look of content, suggesting strong original stories and thinking creatively about how to deal with stories that are already in the public domain.

You'll also use social media platforms to identify story ideas and engage with audience members whilst also maintaining an in-depth understanding of current events and issues, monitoring a range of media outlets/sources.

About You

You're an experienced researcher, able to demonstrate sound editorial and judgement as well as the ability to generate original story ideas for agenda setting journalism. You'll have an understanding of the digital news environment.

You possess excellent organisational, planning and communication skills and are able to work collaboratively in a dynamic, fast-paced team environment under pressure to multiple deadlines.

Working at the ABC

The ABC is the nation's most trusted and independent source of Australian conversations, culture, and stories. With more than 4,000 employees from diverse backgrounds across more than 50 locations around Australia and overseas, we are proud to create, curate and deliver high-quality content that informs, educates and entertains Australian communities.

The ABC's a great place to work; we provide various opportunities for Indigenous staff, including attending the national Indigenous staff conference, activities during NAIDOC week, regular networking events and mentoring support.

You'll have a friendly and supportive environment to learn and grow in, with a vibrant, dynamic and cohesive team and a manager who will help you with any questions and give you regular opportunities to talk about your progress. You'll also have access to a network of Indigenous staff and support from the ABC's Lead, Indigenous Employment and Diversity.
