

Senior Inspector - Operations NSW/ACT

- APS 6, $84,742 - $97,480
- Sydney, NSW and Canberra, ACT
- Permanent

About the Agency

The Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) promotes understanding and enforces compliance with Australia's workplace laws in the building and construction industry.

We do this by:

- providing information and resources
- advising and assisting everyone to understand their rights and obligations
- impartially monitoring and assessing compliance
- using the full range of enforcement options to address non-compliance.

About the role

We have an exciting opportunity for experienced Senior Inspector's to join our Operations NSW/ACT team in our Sydney and Canberra offices.

In this role you will work closely with the Assistant Director and play a pivotal role in engaging with employers and employees in Australia's Building and Construction Industry. Some of your daily activities include:

Investigating potential breaches of workplace laws.

Providing advice and assistance to help improve compliance with laws.

Undertaking activities on building sites to check compliance with the Building Code 2016.

Mentoring and coaching less experienced inspectors.

As a Senior Inspector you will be expected to work with limited direction, be comfortable under pressure, work effectively in a team and have the ability to work professionally and effectively to represent the Commission at building sites in Australia's $141B building and construction industry.

In this role you must be prepared to travel regionally and interstate for operational training or to assist in other offices. You must also hold a current driver's licence.

About you

We are seeking an enthusiastic applicant who can demonstrate:

- The ability to plan, conduct and lead complex investigations and audits.
- Highly developed written and oral communication, liaison, negotiation and representation skills.
- Knowledge of Australia's workplace laws or the ability to quickly acquire such knowledge.
- Highly developed conflict resolution and interpersonal skills.
- The ability to work in a team environment and provide guidance to less experienced team members;
- Highly developed computer skills and experience using case management systems.

A Certificate IV in Government (Investigations) or equivalent is highly desirable.

What you'll get in return

You will be joining an adaptive, high performing and inclusive Commission. We actively encourage applications from Indigenous Australians, people with disability, people from diverse linguistic and cultural backgrounds and people who identify as LGBTIQ+.

You will receive high quality training and support (both formal and on-the-job), flexible work options and family friendly work practices, access to an employee benefits scheme and an attractive base salary of $84,742 plus 15.4% superannuation.

What you need to do now

If this sounds like the perfect opportunity for you, it is important that you review the candidate information kit on our website for instructions on how to apply.

If you have questions regarding the role, you can contact Rosalind Pollock, Director – Operations NSW/ACT on (02) 8255 6025 for more information.

Eligibility

To be eligible for employment at the ABCC, you must be an Australian Citizen and agree to pre-employment screening. This may include a criminal history (police) check, health clearances and character checks. Some positions may require additional checks to be performed and require a security clearance.

Applications close: 11:30PM AEDT, Wednesday 4 March 2020
