

Inspector – Sydney

- APS 5, $79,809 - $84,582
- Sydney
- Permanent / Fixed Term Contract (12 months)

Be part of something bigger

The role of the Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) is to uphold the law and change behaviour to make the building and construction industry fair, efficient and productive.

Bring your passion and enthusiasm to a role that impacts an industry that is one of the largest contributors to GDP in Australia and provides employment to more than one million people.

Your new role

Joining our supportive New South Wales Operations team located in our Sydney office, you will play a pivotal role in engaging with employers and employees in Australia's building and construction industry to promote compliance with Australia's workplace laws.

You will work with Senior Inspectors and regional management to complete a range of activities including:

- Assessing, planning and conducting complex investigations into breaches of Australian workplace laws and the Building Code.
- Preparing inspection reports and correspondence as a result of compliance activities.
- Providing technical advice and assistance to industry participants via the 1800 Hotline service.
- Updating the case management system to ensure obtained information is analysed and interpreted to enhance investigation work.

Whilst undertaking investigations, you will also work closely with our lawyers to ensure that litigation is conducted appropriately. Working in a small agency, you have an opportunity to develop a broad-skillset and your contributions are widely recognised, setting you up for a successful career.

If you can demonstrate your experience assisting with complex investigations, preferably in a civil penalty jurisdiction, coupled with strong communication skills, the ability to interpret and apply legislation and are a problem solver who demonstrates professionalism and resilience in each aspect of your work, you will do well in this role.

You will be joining an agency who will support your development and will provide you with an opportunity to develop a diverse set of skills, which will set you up for a successful career. You must be prepared to travel regionally and interstate (dependent on travel restrictions) for operational training or to assist in other ABCC offices. You must also hold a current driver's licence.

You will also enjoy working in our centrally located office in the Sydney CBD close to transport and Hyde Park.

What's in it for you?

You will be joining an adaptive, high performing and inclusive organisation. Our wellbeing, innovation and engagement index scores are among the best in the Australian Public Service (APS), according to the most recent APS Employee Census.

You will receive exceptional learning and development opportunities, flexible work options including the ability to work remotely, access to an employee benefits scheme, wellbeing initiatives all year round and an attractive base salary of $79,809 plus 15.4% superannuation.

What are you waiting for?

If this sounds like the perfect opportunity for you, review the candidate information kit on our website for instructions on how to apply.

If you have questions regarding the role, you can contact Rosalind Pollock, Director - Operations NSW/ACT on (02) 8255 6025 or email the Recruitment Team for more information.

Eligibility

To be eligible for employment at the ABCC, you must be an Australian Citizen and agree to pre-employment screening. This may include a criminal history (police) check, health clearances and character checks. Some positions may require additional checks to be performed and require a security clearance.

Applications close:

11.30pm AEST Wednesday 14 April 2021
