Be part of something bigger

The role of the Australian Building and Construction Commission (ABCC) is to uphold the law and change behaviour to make the building and construction industry fair, efficient and productive.

Bring your passion and enthusiasm to a role that impacts an industry that is one of the largest contributors to GDP in Australia and provides employment to more than one million people.

Your new role

Joining our supportive Education and Communication team, you will take on a leadership role in the team to identify and pursue opportunities to deliver high quality communications and education products.

In this role, your duties will include:

- Working collaboratively across the multidisciplinary Education and Communication team to provide support for media, video, design, web, internal communications and stakeholder education campaigns.
- Creating and managing communication and education content, including media releases, journal articles, fact sheets, web pages and internal newsletters.
- Tailoring materials to support education and communications campaigns
- Using What You See Is What You Get (WYSIWYG) content management systems to update the website, app and intranet as required.
- Contributing to education strategies and programs.
- Using your exceptional interpersonal, communication and networking skills, you will be preparing and executing education campaigns and strategies. In addition, you will be not only be able to direct your own work, but also motivate others to achieve results.

This role is available across a number of our capital city locations.

What's in it for you?

You will be joining an adaptive, high performing and inclusive organisation. Our wellbeing, innovation and engagement index scores are among the best in the Australian Public Service (APS), according to the most recent APS Employee Census.

You will receive exceptional learning and development opportunities, flexible work options including the ability to work remotely, access to an employee benefits scheme, wellbeing initiatives all year round and an attractive base salary of $86,437 plus 15.4% superannuation.

What are you waiting for?
