

ABS Field Interviewers

Seeking Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Field Interviewers in Darwin, Katherine and Alice Springs.

- Work flexible hours from your home-based workplace
- Permanent positions, with paid training and ongoing support
- $27.17 per hour plus 9.25% loading, 15.4% superannuation and motor vehicle allowance

This job is ideal for you if you want to make a real difference in your community and for your people, as the information you collect will be used to make important decisions and get resources and infrastructure where it is needed most.

As a Field Interviewer you are the public face of the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS), and interview people selected in important government surveys.

We are expecting ongoing Field Interviewer vacancies in Darwin, Katherine and Alice Springs over the next 12 months.

We are looking for people who prefer working flexible hours from a home-based workplace, have good written, verbal, organisational and computer skills.

After you have completed paid training you will interview selected households either over the phone or visiting their home and recording answers on a laptop.

You are guaranteed and required to work a minimum of two weeks per month. This will often working outside normal business hours to survey people when they are at home. Availability on weekdays, weekday evenings, Saturdays and school holidays is required.

For further information about these roles, please contact the Interviewer Recruitment Helpline on 02 6252 8947 or our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment and Retention Strategies Unit on 08 8943 2103.

To apply go to Current Vacancies at abs.gov.au/careers. Applications close at 11:30PM (AEDT) Sunday 15 November 2020.