

Go somewhere
unexpected

Tax Specialist (Indigenous affirmative measure)

Location: Adelaide, Albury, Box Hill, Brisbane CBD, Canberra, Chermside, Dandenong, Geelong, Gosford, Hobart, Melbourne CBD, Moonee Ponds, Newcastle, Parramatta, Penrith, Perth, Sydney CBD, Townsville, Upper Mount Gravatt or Wollongong

- Competitive pay and superannuation benefits
- Do meaningful work to improve Australia's tax and superannuation systems
- Flexible work/life balance

About the role

We are seeking influential and experienced leaders to join our Client Engagement and Law Design and Practice groups.

As a Tax Specialist, in the Client Engagement Group, you will provide leadership on technical issues and coordinate the provision of specialist advice by others. This includes engaging with offshore investment portfolios and examining foreign holding structures.

In the Law Design and Practice Group, you will lead the development or analysis for policy proposals for changes to legislation, policies and practices, while delivering an improved and streamlined client experience.

Your duties

- Conduct broad legal analysis and research in Australian and International tax law
- Scrutinise complex structures and transactions and prepare legal positions
- Champion the simplification of the tax and superannuation laws
- Work with Treasury and other government agencies

Skills and experience

- Deep understanding of the taxation and superannuation legislative and financial environments, particularly in the areas of large public and private groups and multinational enterprises
- Extensive knowledge and experience with tax reconciliations, understanding economic performance, tax and corporate governance

- Comprehensive understanding of the structures and tax planning approaches used in large or private businesses
- Sound judgment in relation to complex tax disputes, critically analysing the factual matrix and applies tax law towards principled and fair outcomes
- Trusted adviser and experienced negotiator, who can influence complex, technical or sensitive issues
- Identifies problems, risks and opportunities, actively engaging others in identifying, developing and implementing solutions
- Highly developed leadership skills.

Recognised qualifications in accounting, law, business or commerce-related discipline and/or seven years' experience in audit, tax and law fields are highly desirable.

Benefits

- Attractive superannuation contributions of 15.4%
- Flexibility to provide work/life balance
- Award-winning and highly professional organisation
- Contemporary workspaces and technology

You must be an Australian citizen to work with the ATO.

The Indigenous affirmative measure is enabled under section 26 of the Australian Public Service Commissioner's Directions 2016 and section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975.

Does this sound like you?

If this sounds like you, we encourage you to click "Apply".

Find out more information about us on our careers page at www.ato.gov.au/careers

Closing date: 10 March 2021.

CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION AND A LINK
TO APPLY