

Dandenong and District Aborigines Co-operative Limited

Team Leader – Aboriginal Best Start

Come and join in our vision to empower the Aboriginal community lead their best lives. The Dandenong & District Aborigines Co-operative Ltd (DDACL) is an Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Organisation (ACCHO) which is governed by a community elected Board of Directors. The position sits within the Social and Community Services (SACS) area of DDACL and the Aged and Disability team.

In this exciting opportunity as Team Leader Aboriginal Best Start Facilitator, you will to build the capacity of the early childhood education (kindergarten, supported playgroups) sector to support Aboriginal families and children to engage, learn and develop. This will be through a partnership approach by supporting services to improve and tailor to the needs of for Aboriginal families and children.

The role will also be responsible for facilitating an Aboriginal best start partnership that supports positive outcomes for Aboriginal families and children in the catchment area, adopting evidence-based strategies and actions, reviewing data and reporting.

For further details about the position including the key selection criteria and to apply, please visit our careers site by clicking on the FURTHER INFORMATION button below.

Applications close COB Sunday 9 May 2021.

CLICK FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
AND A LINK TO APPLY