

Dandenong and District Aborigines Co-operative Limited

Manager, Strategy & Planning

Make a difference to our community. Come and drive our strategic priorities and help us achieve our vision to empower our community to lead their best lives.

We are a small not for profit community run organisation that serves the Aboriginal community in the south east Melbourne area providing comprehensive primary health care, allied health, along with family, aged/disability, youth and housing services.

Reporting to the CEO as a Manager, Strategy & Planning you will provide guidance and advice and work alongside our executive management team to ensure our strategic priorities are successfully implemented, review and evaluate organisational effectiveness and partner with our stakeholders in order to deliver on key initiatives and maintain a cultural presence.

You will need to possess a demonstrated understanding and commitment to holistic Aboriginal health, and the philosophy and practice of Aboriginal Community Control, a demonstrated ability to work with community, and executive level experience and demonstrated ability to help lead and implement business changes and strategic priorities.

The successful candidate will enjoy great benefits including an attractive salary package, vehicle, salary sacrificing, learning and development opportunities and a great team culture. For a full list of key responsibilities and selection criteria please refer to the position description on our careers page.

Applications close 5pm Monday 15 February 2021.

For further information about the role and for a confidential discussion please contact Andrew Gardiner, CEO on 0439 887 903.

For further information an a link to apply vlick on the web link below.

Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander applicants are strongly encouraged to apply.

CLICK TO DOWNLOAD THE POSITION DESCRIPTION
AND TO APPLY