Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade

Officer – Trade and Investment Legal Adviser (Specialist)

APS Level 6 ($85,578 - $96,226) plus superannuation

Ongoing/Non-ongoing; Full-time/Part-time

Canberra, ACT

Do you want to make a real contribution to advancing Australia's economic prosperity? Do you want to provide advice on Australia's international trade and investment law obligations, negotiate trade agreements and lead international litigation for Australia?

The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) is seeking talented and energetic trade and investment lawyers to advise on international trade law and contribute to Australia's involvement in the World Trade Organization (WTO). You will help to shape the development and implementation of the Australian Government's trade and investment policy objectives, including to protect and promote Australia's commercial and strategic interests. You will play a key role advancing Australia's interests in the WTO. The positions are located in Canberra.

DFAT is committed to providing an inclusive and diverse workplace where all employees are valued. We appreciate the experiences, skills and perspectives of all individuals. We actively encourage applications from people from diverse backgrounds. Please refer to our Workplace Diversity internet page for further information.

Candidates must be Australian citizens.

An interview is a critical part of the security clearance process. The interview method (i.e. face-to-face or video conferencing) will be assessed on a case-by-case basis, taking into account advice from the Australian Government Department of Health and relevant state and territory governments.

Depending on the role into which you are placed, you may be required to obtain and maintain a Working with Vulnerable People/Children registration (or equivalent).

DFAT employees are expected to adhere to the APS Values and Code of Conduct and the DFAT Values Statement. Please visit the DFAT website to view further details of this opportunity.

Applications close Monday 1 March 2021 at 11:30pm AEDT.
