Do you want to make a real contribution to the success of our country internationally?

Do you want to make a real contribution to the success of our country internationally by supporting the peaceful use of Australian nuclear material and international nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament norms?

For this Director position you will be an emerging leader - a leader who is able to engage with government on scientific matters and provide valuable input to engagement and negotiation with international nuclear counterparts, international nuclear safeguards, nuclear security and non-proliferation initiatives in bilateral, regional and multilateral forums including the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). You should be passionate about making a difference in the world and interested in further building on your already significant expertise in the nuclear non-proliferation sphere.

DFAT is committed to providing an inclusive and diverse workplace where all employees are valued. We appreciate the experiences, skills and perspectives of all individuals. We actively encourage applications from people from diverse backgrounds. Please refer to our Workplace Diversity internet page for further information.

Candidates must be Australian citizens.

An interview is a critical part of the security clearance process. The interview method (i.e. face-to-face or video conferencing) will be assessed on a case-by-case basis, taking into account advice from the Australian Government Department of Health and relevant state and territory governments.

Depending on the role into which you are placed, you may be required to obtain and maintain a Working with Vulnerable People/Children registration (or equivalent).

DFAT employees are expected to adhere to the APS Values and Code of Conduct and the DFAT Values Statement. Please visit the DFAT website to view further details of this opportunity.

Applications close Monday 22 March 2021 at 11:30pm AEDT.
