Location: Melbourne, CBD

Salary: $87,640 to $99,438 + super.

Position No: 50938999

- Do you have outstanding stakeholder management and communication skills?
- Are you a highly organised individual who strives for service excellence?
- Location: Melbourne, CBD

Exciting opportunity to join a diverse team supporting the Energy Group's commitment to recognizing and investing in Aboriginal projects and aspirations for renewable energy.

This position will lead the Aboriginal Energy program's engagement and communication activities, as well as provide project and program delivery support to the Senior Program Manager Aboriginal Energy. The role requires an individual who can be a key collaborative link between Traditional Owner Corporations, DELWP Energy and other government and non-government stakeholders. This position will require a motivated individual with strong organisational and communication skills and the ability to work effectively and flexibly as a key team member.

This position will support the Energy group's commitments to recognise and invest in Aboriginal projects and aspirations for renewable energy, as well as Pupangarli Marnmarnepu; DELWP's Aboriginal Self-Determination Reform Strategy. The successful candidate will build effective relationships across the Department, the energy sector, other government agencies, Traditional Owner groups and peak Aboriginal bodies. This role requires a person with demonstrable skills, experience and knowledge of Aboriginal culture and contemporary issues affecting Aboriginal Victorians today to support the delivery of culturally informed government programs and services, and ideally experience in program delivery. An understanding of Victoria's energy sector, and/or experience in grants management is also desirable.

Specialist/Technical Expertise/Qualifications

- Extensive skills, experience and knowledge of Aboriginal culture and contemporary issues affecting Aboriginal Victorians today to deliver culturally informed government programs and services is required.
- Experience in project management or program delivery is highly desirable.
- An appropriate qualification in a related field such as engineering, business, natural resource management, or environmental science would be desirable, but is not required.

This is a fixed term position available for a period of 12 months.

To be considered for this position, your application should include a separate document demonstrating that you meet the Key Selection Criteria detailed in the position description, including the Specialist/Technical Expertise/Qualifications and capabilities sections.
