

Children's Services

Since 1895

Community Cultural Coordinator (Targeted) KU Children's Services

KU Children's Services (KU) is a leading not for profit provider of early childhood education, & has been recognised as a Winner of The Australian Business Awards for Employer of Choice in 2016 - 2020, demonstrating our commitment to making your work with us as interesting & rewarding.

KU has an exciting opportunity for a Community Cultural Coordinator to join our team. The role will be based out of our Ashmont service and will see you working 3 days per week 8 hours each day – with room for flexibility around which days, as long as community needs are supported, offered on a fixed term contract until January 2024.

Key responsibilities: Informing local Aboriginal peoples, families, communities, organisations & agencies of the high-quality early childhood education KU services offer, Assisting local Aboriginal families when enrolling their children in a KU early childhood service as needed, Providing ongoing support to KU staff to build their capacity & capability to provide culturally informed practices in the delivery of early childhood educational programs, & more as detailed in the full advertisement.

KU has an organisational reputation of increasing employment opportunities and career pathways that are culturally respected and welcoming to Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander peoples.

To find out more please click the APPLY NOW button below or email Careers@KU.com.au

APPLY NOW