About us

Corrective Services NSW Intensive Learning Centres offer full time programs that aim to develop inmates' language, literacy and numeracy skills, pro-social knowledge and attitudes to support individual change and enhance post-release employment opportunities. Intensive Learning Centres aim to provide 21st century learning opportunities for inmates in a supportive environment where intense, collaborative learning takes place.

About the role

Plan, develop, deliver and evaluate courses which meet the requirements of accredited courses and training packages to achieve the highest levels of program delivery in accordance with CSNSW policy, procedures and standards to contribute to the reduction of re-offending and increased community safety.

Contribute to the provision of vocational training programs delivered by the external education service provider in the Intensive Learning Centre.

About you

You are an experienced teacher with the ability to engage adult learners who have invariably experienced educational and institutional barriers to learning.

You will meet the essential requirements above and be able to:

- Develop course outlines, lesson plans and teaching and assessment resources in line with the requirements of accredited course and training package qualifications
- Participate in evaluation processes including validation and moderation of assessment
- Maintain ethical practices in a dynamic and challenging environment.

For application enquiries or technical issues, please contact the Talent Acquisition team via:
Email: mayur.kaushik@justice.nsw.gov.au

A talent pool may be created for future ongoing and temporary roles and is valid for a period of up to 18 months. If a vacancy arises in your preferred location during this time, you may be contacted and asked to attend the location to meet the manager. From there a final decision will be made regarding whether to activate the talent pool. Offers are based on location preference, capabilities, knowledge and experience.
