

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Nursing Recruitment at Monash Health

Reference Number: 41636

Employment Type: Full Time Ongoing, Part Time Ongoing

Entity: Monash Health

Department: General Services

Location: Dandenong Hospital, Monash Children's Hospital, Casey Hospital, Moorabbin Hospital, Kingston Centre

Acknowledging the vital role they play in providing healthcare to our community, Monash Health proudly supports the WHO 2020 International Year of the Nurse and the Midwife.

About Monash Health

Monash Health is Victoria's largest public health service. We provide safe, high-quality care to one-quarter of Melbourne's population, across the entire lifespan, from pre-birth to end-of-life.

As an equal opportunity employer, Monash Health is committed to a fair and non-discriminatory workplace that maximises the talent, potential and contribution of all employees. We are relentless in our pursuit of excellence and work to our six guiding principles.

What You Need

As part of a tertiary hospital providing outstanding patient experience, through our Nursing services, we uphold a high standard of care and service. Along with a genuine passion and interest in your chosen skill, we will require you to hold;

- Current APHRA registration
- Experience within a health care setting with clinical responsibilities
- Australian working rights

How We Support You

Please note this tailored recruitment opportunity is only for those people who identify as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander.

- Once we receive your resume application, you will receive a phone call directly from our dedicated Aboriginal Employment coordinator.
- We will then discuss your skills, capabilities and interests. We will also ask you what you want to achieve during your career journey at Monash Health.
- We will advise you of the current Monash Health vacancies that match your current skill set.
- Those job links will be emailed directly to you so that you can apply for these jobs (for privacy reasons, this cannot be done on your behalf).
- From there, the Aboriginal Employment coordinator will provide you with the support and guidance during your recruitment journey with Monash Health.

Our Community

Once you join Monash Health, you receive the support and guidance to integrate you into our community through a range of initiatives and activities such as:

- Aboriginal Mentor support
- Yarning circles
- Additional programs and public health forums which may be of interest
- Celebrations such as NAIDOC Week and Reconciliation Week and Monash Health initiatives

Focus groups where you will be given the opportunity to contribute to improving Aboriginal Health.

What We Offer:

- Access to Monash Health in-house learning portals to further expand your acute clinical skills & knowledge base
- Avenues to further develop your leadership & project management skills
- Mentorship & career guidance
- Support to attend relevant forums & conferences
- A supportive learning environment, should you wish to undertake postgraduate studies

In addition, you will have access to benefits including salary packaging to increase your take-home pay, access to onsite staff car parking and gym, uniform and the Employee Assistance Program (EAP).

How to Apply

If you identify as an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander person and are looking for Nursing opportunities with Monash Health, we would love to hear from you.

- Submit your current resume and cover letter by clicking 'Apply.'
- In your cover letter, specify what type of roles you are interested in within Monash Health whether it be administration or clinically related (based on your current skill set).
- You will be contacted shortly after your application is received.

Preferred candidates will require a clear Police Check and a current Working with Children's Check prior to any offers of employment being made.

Please note, applications will be accepted via the Monash Health online Mercury System only. Email applications will not be considered.

Search our Facebook community 'Nursing and Midwifery Careers at Monash Health' to be part of an online group; keep updated with recruitment tips and opportunities at Monash Health.

Monash
Health

WEB-LINK