About the NDIA

The purpose of the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) is to implement the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) which will support a better life for hundreds of thousands of Australians with a significant and permanent disability. The NDIA will also provide great benefit to the families and carers of Australians living with a disability. The NDIS is designed to enhance the quality of life and increase economic and social participation for people with disability and will mean peace of mind for every Australian, for anyone who has, or might acquire, a disability.

About the Position

We have new opportunities for highly motivated candidates to join the National Disability Insurance Agency as Planners. In these rewarding roles as a Planner, you will work with participants and planning partners to determine supports for people with disability to achieve their goals and aspirations. You will have planning conversations with participants and gathering appropriate information to determine funded supports in accordance with the NDIS Act 2013.

If these roles sound like the opportunity you are looking for, we want to hear from you!
