

Indigenous Artist Educator

Programs, Education, Research Library & Archives

(PERLA) Department

NGA Level 4/5

Position No. 6103

$64,828 - $76,761 pro-rata

Part-time

Non-ongoing Vacancy

The position

This is a new role, offering you the opportunity to design and deliver accessible programs and activities for various learning styles, abilities and preferences. This will include studio-based creative activities for onsite, online and outreach. To create effective and informative programs you will liaise with community, applying appropriate cultural protocols, and work collaboratively with colleagues across the Gallery to prepare interesting content.

To be successful in this role you will have experience in the education sector and/or a strong understanding of programming and content development principles. You will be well equipped to deliver programs to a range of audiences and groups within the community including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, children and adults.

Strong administrative and organisational skills are key requirements in undertaking this role, as are the personal qualities of working flexibly, cooperatively with the team or independently with minimal direction.

This part-time (3 days per week), non-ongoing employment opportunity is available until 30 June 2021 within the PERLA Department, Curatorial and Exhibitions Portfolio. The position will be filled using the Affirmative Measure provision, which allows for the targeted recruitment of Indigenous Australians into the Australian Public Service. The vacancy is only open to Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people. The filling of this employment opportunity is intended to constitute an affirmative measure under section 8(1) of the Racial Discrimination Act 1975.

How to apply

If you are interested in this role you must submit a current resume/CV, the NGA Personal Particulars form and a brief statement of claims addressing the selection criteria (1–2 page pitch), which details your skills, experience and qualifications which are relevant to this position. Please note that the selection criteria do not need to be addressed individually. The job description and selection documentation are available below.
