

Aboriginal Practice Advisor

Vacancy Number: 033866

Location: Katherine

Remuneration Package Range: ( $142,067 - $158,549) including salary $123,559 - $138,034

Work Unit: Northern Region Child Protection

Vacancy Type: Ongoing (Permanent) - Full Time

- Play a key role in ensuring Aboriginal children grow up strong, connected to community
- Lead the implementation of Cultural Security Framework and Practice Standards.
- Influence change by engaging with diverse communities and stakeholders.

Apply your strategic leadership skills and help build safe, strong and proud communities where every Territorian is valued and able to participate.

Territory Families, Housing and Communities is committed to improving cultural safety and valuing Aboriginal staff and partners. Our commitment is providing a responsive and safe environment for Aboriginal people where cultural value, strengths and differences are integrated into the governance, management, designing and delivery of services.

As Aboriginal Practice Advisor, you will be part of the Big Rivers leadership team. You will support children and families to be safe by providing high quality advice to the Senior Director, Managers and Team Leaders; develop and deliver culturally appropriate and effective services for Aboriginal families; and contribute to the improvement of cultural practice standards and policy initiatives relating to Aboriginal children and families.

To be successful, you will have a strong commitment to ensuring the safety of children, practical experience in the child and family sector and the ability to contribute to the Big Rivers leadership team. Demonstrated knowledge and understanding of cultural issues, family and community dynamics and relationships as well as the ability to work with a range of Aboriginal communities and other stakeholders is essential.

In return you will receive a competitive salary inclusive of 6 weeks annual leave, the opportunity to grow professionally and be part of a team committed to making a difference to Aboriginal children and their families. Just 320km drive from Darwin, Katherine is the main service centre for the Big Rivers Region and is the gateway to the north, south, east and west with gorges, waterfalls, thermal springs and ancient cultures to experience. You will have the opportunity to travel by road or air to remote communities and homelands within the region and experience the unique language and culture.
