

Project Manager – Suicide Prevention

Location: Orange, Dubbo or Broken Hill

Full time maximum term contract until 30 June 2021
(with possibility of further extension)

About Western Health Alliance Ltd (WHAL) trading as Western NSW Primary Health Network (WNSW PHN)

The WNSW PHN is one of 31 Primary Health Networks across Australia established by the Australian Government to support frontline health services. Our focus is to increase the efficiency and effectiveness of primary health care, ensuring people receive the right care in the right place at the right time. To achieve this, we work closely with general practice, Aboriginal Medical Services and other health care providers, Local Health Districts, non-government organisations and the broader community.

The Role

Western NSW Primary Health Network (WNSW PHN) is currently seeking a motivated individual who has a passion for primary healthcare and an interest in supporting, strengthening and shaping a world-class person-centred Primary Health Care system to join our Integration and Services team as Project Manager – Suicide Prevention.

The Project Manager – Suicide Prevention is responsible for Western NSW Primary Health Network's Suicide Prevention Projects. This includes project management of local implementation of the National Suicide Prevention Trial activities and other Suicide Prevention activities as approved in our Activity Work Plans.

WNSW PHN has a strong focus and commitment to addressing Aboriginal health inequality across the region and your commitment to the values of improving Aboriginal outcomes is highly valued. These roles will work closely with relevant internal staff and commissioned services providers to facilitate the adoption and implementation of the Western NSW Primary Health Network (WNSW PHN) Cultural Safety and Clinical Governance Frameworks.

The position can be based in any one of our offices which include Broken Hill, Dubbo or Orange.

Benefits to working with WHAL

We pride ourselves on being supportive and flexible and offer a great range of benefits including:

- Generous salary packaging options up to $18,450 per year
- Professional development allowance and leave
- Family friendly and flexible working arrangements
- Supportive team environment
- Collaboration with passionate likeminded professionals
- 5 weeks annual leave
- Option to purchase an additional 2 weeks leave or cash out 2 weeks
- Additional leave between the Christmas and New Year period
- 6 weeks paid parental leave
- Opportunities to be innovative
- Free Employment Assistance Program

How to apply

For an outline of responsibilities, position description, selection criteria and information on how to apply, please refer to the Employment tab in the 'About Us' section of our website www.wnswphn.org.au/about-us/employment

WNSW PHN is committed to achieving a diverse workforce and strongly encourage applications from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

For enquiries regarding this role, please contact Sue Hackney (Portfolio Lead – Community Wellbeing, Psychosocial Support & Suicide Prevention) on 0438 424 952.

PLEASE NOTE:

The selection criteria as outlined in the position description must be addressed as part of your application.

Applications close 11.59pm Thursday 19 March 2020.