

Cultural Liaison Officer Identified

Mt Isa & Townsville

Salary Rates: $74,615 - $81,816

Community Corrections is responsible for supervising adult clients in the community and staff aim to protect the community and reduce re-offending by supervising clients and encouraging them to adopt more pro-social attitudes and behaviours.

We are looking for strong Indigenous staff committed to change for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and able to assist clients to lead a positive life in the community, away from crime and back into family, kin, culture and country.

The essential requirements of the role are:

- Ability to contribute to and work effectively within a multi-disciplinary team.
- Current knowledge and interest in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander issues, trends and practices and their impact on criminal behaviour with a drive for continual learning and professional development.
- Proven ability to establish and maintain stakeholder relationships (particularly with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations) including where the working relationship is at distance, in order to promote positive service outcomes.
- Strong interpersonal and negotiation skills to maintain effective internal and external professional partnerships.
- Self-awareness and ability to be a positive representative of QCS and ability to role model behaviours and attitudes in alignment with QCS values and priorities.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills including the ability to produce written reports, represent QCS and contribute within forums and meetings.
- Commitment to maintaining confidentiality of issues and information.

(Identified - Applicants must identify as being of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent.)
