

S121-4 Manager, South Australian Aboriginal Secondary Training Academy

Department for Education

Job reference: 415202

Location: 5000 - ADELAIDE

Job status: Long Term Contract

Eligibility: Open to Everyone

South Australian Secondary Training Academy (SAASTA) is a highly regarded and unique sporting and education program for Aboriginal students with academies operating in high schools across South Australia. Each academy works in partnership with the local school community to provide SAASTA students with the skills and opportunities in the areas of sport, education, employment and healthy living. The academy aims to pursue excellence in achievement through a specially designed, flexible and high quality curriculum. The Academy connects with hundreds of students in a number of on and off site programs. The students engage in an innovative senior school program combining outcomes in SACE and VET. SAASTA incorporate 20 academies operating in a number of schools throughout the state.

The Manager, South Australian Aboriginal Secondary Training Academy oversees the operation of individual academies in schools with particular focus on staffing and the case management of students including attendance, improving literacy and numeracy standards and SACE completion.

The environment can at times be politically sensitive in relation to Aboriginal affairs and governance. The position requires extremely high levels of confidentiality, and is subject to periods of high workload and changing priorities.
