

Aboriginal Employment Advisor

Are you looking for an opportunity to join a world class tertiary paediatric specialty network in a varied role at a pivotal time of transformation and commitment to building and developing our Aboriginal workforce?

The Sydney Children's Hospitals network has recently pledged our commitment to Aboriginal people through the establishment of an Aboriginal Health Unit, endorsement of the Uluru Statement of the Heart and development of an Interim Aboriginal Workforce strategy and plan which has participation commitment of a group of over 30 managers and leaders.

“Aboriginal people are encouraged to apply and, where found suitable, will be given higher priority.

Aboriginal applicants may have to cite Aboriginality in addition to the selection criteria.”
