

WESTERN SYDNEY UNIVERSITY

Indigenous Employment Coordinator

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education, Strategy and Consultation

- Parramatta South Campus
- Full-time, Ongoing role
- Remuneration: $108,206 to $116,756 p.a.

The Western Sydney University 2020 – 2025 Indigenous Strategy seeks to position WSU as a university that serves and empowers our community as an anchor institution to the region while being recognised as a national leader in Indigenous education, employment and research. In order to achieve this, the Indigenous Strategy presents strategic objectives in seven areas of Indigenous engagement: students; employment; research; learning and teaching; community engagement; leadership; and cultural viability and knowledge.

The Indigenous Employment Coordinator is responsible for the delivery of outcomes designed to increase the Indigenous staff workforce at Western Sydney University and to improve employment outcomes for Indigenous students and graduates through the design, development, enhancement and management of a range of employment initiatives.

Reporting to the Director of Indigenous Employment, the Indigenous Employment Coordinator will work closely with the Office of the Pro Vice-Chancellor Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Education, Strategy and Consultation, People and Success, the Indigenous community and other stakeholders such as industry partners and government agencies to facilitate cadetship and internship opportunities for Indigenous students at Western and, to source appropriate funding for staff initiatives, such as traineeships. They will also work closely with The College to facilitate education pathways for Indigenous staff. Programs and initiatives will respond to stakeholder feedback and adopt a continuous improvement approach to drive impact.

To be successful in the role, we are looking for someone with a high level of knowledge for the Higher Education sector and issues related to Indigenous employment and a demonstrated ability to engage with a range of Indigenous stakeholders and to identify new opportunities and build collaborative relationships across WSU and externally. Demonstrated experience in establishing and managing projects would be highly regarded.

Remuneration Package: HEW Level 7 $108,206 to $116,756 p.a. (comprising Salary of $91,435 to $98,660 p.a., plus Superannuation and Leave Loading)
