

Fantastic position playing a key role in our Finance and Governance Team working closely with the Board and Committees.

Governance Advisor

The Australian Centre for the Moving Image (ACMI) is Australia's national museum of film, TV, video games, digital culture and art. Unique in the museum landscape in Australia, we celebrate the past, present and future of the moving image and its profound impact as it transports, challenges and entertains people of all ages and backgrounds, right across the globe.

We have an exciting role within our Finance & Governance Team for an experienced and pro-active Governance Advisor. This role provides support to the Head of Finance & Governance and the Board, to prepare, compile and distribute agenda papers for Board meetings and various committee meetings. Also, this role will play a pivotal role in managing ACMI's policy and compliance frameworks.

You are an experienced governance professional with excellent communication and influencing skills with the ability to manage tight timelines in a diplomatic and collegiate way. You are likely to have gained your experience in a similar organisation and enjoy the creative space.

If successful, you can expect to become part of a talented, committed and creative team of people with a passion for screen culture. This Grade 4 role has a starting salary of $85,279 salary plus Super.
